

松江圏都市計画図

The map shows the Katsuragi River (大津川) flowing through a landscape with various land uses. The legend indicates symbols for rice fields (田), fields (畑), forests (森林), and rivers (河川). The map also includes a scale bar and a north arrow. The river is shown with a winding course, and the surrounding area is divided into different land parcels, some of which are labeled with numbers and letters. The map is a detailed representation of the geographical area, showing the river's path and the surrounding terrain.
